

BJRI Foundational Framework

Foundational Position

The Institute operates from a position of evidential discipline, procedural fairness, safeguarding awareness, methodological neutrality, and lawful engagement.

Neutrality Principles

The Institute does not operate from predetermined ideological conclusions and does not present allegation, speculation, or perception as established fact without appropriate evidential foundation.

Safeguarding

The Institute recognises safeguarding, public protection, proportionality, and lawful escalation procedures as fundamental operational obligations.