SUBJECT: URGENT – HEARING 25 SEPTEMBER 2026 – R v DERRICK LYNCH – CASE 01GD1160226 – PROVENANCE, AUTHORSHIP AND SAFEGUARDING INQUIRY – “NOTES FOR DEFENDANTS REPRESENTING THEMSELVES IN THE CROWN COURT”

Dear Sir or Madam,

Please find attached my URGENT FORMAL PROVENANCE, AUTHORSHIP AND SAFEGUARDING INQUIRY concerning the document entitled:

“Notes for Defendants Representing Themselves in the Crown Court.”

The attached inquiry is 11 pages and contains my full questions and requests. It asks, among other matters, who created, compiled, reviewed and approved the Notes; what decision-making processes were used; whether those processes contained safeguards specifically against anti-Black racism and institutional racism; and who, if anybody, provided, recommended, identified or made the Notes available to HHJ Deacon KC in connection with my case.

I am a Black person.

For the avoidance of doubt, I make no accusations, no allegations, no assumptions, no assertions and no conclusions.

I am seeking factual information and documentary evidence.

The Judge directed me to read these Notes following concerns that I had raised in court. I complied with that direction. I now need to establish where that information came from, who was responsible for it, how its contents were determined, what safeguards governed those decisions, and whether safeguards against anti-Black racism and institutional racism formed part of those processes.

This matter is urgent. My next hearing is on 25 September 2026.

I have serious concerns about my personal safety within the criminal justice process. The number and circumstances of reported deaths of Black people in police custody form part of the context in which I have raised my safeguarding concerns.

I am in fear for my life.

I expressly make no allegation that any such conduct has occurred in my case. My purpose is to obtain evidence rather than make assumptions or reach conclusions.

WOOD GREEN CROWN COURT
